

Center of Dilation

Examples & Non-Examples

Example	Example	Non-Example

Definition

The fixed point from which a figure is enlarged or reduced. Every point on the figure moves along a line that passes through this point, and its distance from the center is multiplied by the scale factor.