

Opposite Rays

Examples & Non-Examples

Example	Example	Non-Example
$\overrightarrow{AB}$ and $\overrightarrow{AC}$	$\overrightarrow{GH}$ and $\overrightarrow{GJ}$	$\overrightarrow{AB}$ and $\overrightarrow{AC}$

Definition

Opposite rays are two rays that share the same endpoint but go in exactly opposite directions, forming a straight line.

Together, they create a line that measures 180 degrees.