

Congruent Angles

Examples & Non-Examples

Example	Example	Non-Example

Definition

Congruent angles are angles that have the same measure, no matter their orientation or size of the sides.

In other words, if two angles both measure, for example, 45° , they are congruent.

