

Linear Pair

Examples & Non-Examples

Example	Example	Non-Example

Definition

A linear pair is a pair of adjacent angles whose non-common sides form a straight line.

In other words, the two angles are next to each other and together add up to 180 degrees.

