

Obtuse Angle

Examples & Non-Examples

| Example                                                                           | Example                                                                           | Non-Example                                                                        | Non-Example                                                                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |

Definition

An obtuse angle is an angle that measures more than 90 degrees but less than 180 degrees.

It's wider than a right angle but not a straight line.

